

@heppharm*British Hepatology Pharmacy Group (BHPG) Education Meeting*Tuesday 12th November*Time: 9:15-16:15 (registration from 8:45)*Venue: ISH Venues, 1 Park Crescent, London*AGENDA

- 08:45—09:15 Registration
- 09:15—10:00 Pharmacist role in prevention & treatment of liver disease in Primary care (Aimee Francisco, BHPG Primary care representative)
- 10:05— 10:50 Role of Pharmacist in MASLD clinic (joint presentation with MDT including dietitian) (Speaker TBC)
- 10:55—11:15 Break
- 11:20—12:00 HE management case study- break-out session
- 12:05—12:55 Acute Liver Failure - management and case study
Dr Brian Hogan, Lead Clinician Liver Critical Care & Bryan O'Farrell, Lead Pharmacist, Intensive care, Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust.
- 13:00—14:00 Lunch

The logo for the British Association for the Study of the Liver (BASL) features a stylized red and white 'B' followed by the letters 'ASL' in white on a dark blue background.

British Association for the study of the Liver

The logo for the British Hepatology Pharmacy Group (BHPG) features a stylized red and white 'B' followed by the letters 'HPG' in white on a purple background.

British Hepatology Pharmacy Group

@heppharm

- 14:00—14:45 Setting up of ACLD pharmacist-virtual clinic (pathways, scope of practice, how patients are monitored, reflections on setting up service)
Sara Sawieres, King's College Hospital NHS Trust
- 14:50—15:35 Hepatology Pharmacy Technician talk on role in clinic
(Speaker TBC)
- 15:40—16:15 Update on Research projects Research Committee