

HCC UK Referrers Day 2024

Date: Wed 2nd October 2024, Liver Cancer Awareness Month

Location: Online educational meeting

Course objective: up-to-date clinical guidance for hepatologists, gastroenterologists, oncologists, specialist nurses and allied healthcare professionals on which treatments your patients with HCC are eligible for, who to refer for liver transplantation, vital roles of the MDT, and current clinical trials recruiting nationally.

Course Programme:

09.00 – 09.10 Course Introduction Dr Nekisa Zakeri & Dr Aileen Marshall

Chair Dr Aileen Marshall

09.10 – 09.35 HCC Surveillance – where are we at and future plans?

09.35 – 10.50 Which treatments are my patients with HCC eligible for? Part 1

(15mins per talk and 15mins for Q&As panel discussion at end)

- Ablation Dr Chris Chick
- Surgical Resection Miss Anya Adair
- TAE/TACE Dr TC See
- SABR Prof Maria Hawkins

10.50 – 11.10 Coffee Break (20 mins)

Chair Dr Tim Cross

11.10 - 11.55 Which treatments are my patients with HCC eligible for? Part 2

- SIRT Dr Peter Littler
- Systemic therapy & clinical trials Prof Tim Meyer

11.55 - 12.45 Who should we refer for liver transplantation for HCC?

(20mins per talk and 10mins for Q&As panel discussion at end)

- Patient selection and clinical outcomes Dr Abid Suddle
- Downstaging and bridging treatment Prof Shishir Shetty

12.45 – 13.30 Lunch break (45 mins)

Chair Dr Nekisa Zakeri

13.30 – 13.50 Current roles & future expansion of HCC CNS team Ms Sarah Selemani

13.50 – 15.00 Medical optimisation of the HCC patient

- Varices assessment/management in HCC Prof Dhiraj Tripathi
- Nutrition and HCC Ms Jill Johnson
- Viral hepatitis and HCC tbc

15.00 – 15.30 What does the future of HCC management look like? Prof Helen Reeves

15.30 Closing statements